Registration Now Open for DWR Library's 2021 Summer Reading Program

DURANT, Oklahoma - Registration opens today for the Donald W. Reynolds Library's 2021 Summer Library Program. Readers of all ages will explore the animal kingdom this summer as the library presents "Tails and Tales." Activities may include songs, group games, crafts, art projects, science and engineering experiments, and more.

Reading sessions and activities will be every Tuesday and Thursday from June 1 through July 29.

The 2021 Summer Library Program is open to young people, kindergarten through young adult, with programs, prize drawings, storytimes, a reading club, and more. Tails and Tales will have several wildlife encounters to participate in: three for the 5 to 8 year-olds "Safari Rangers (9am, 10am, and 1pm), two for the 9 to 12 year-olds "Gorilla Trackers" (11am and 2pm), and the teen "Deep-Sea Divers" will meet Tuesdays from 4-5pm.

Families are invited to join the awards luncheon at 1pm on Friday, July 30. Visit the front desk to register your children. For more information, call the library at (580) 924-3486 or email DWR Library Programs Director Ashley Nunley. All programs are free of charge.
